

FCEI 2020 Keynotes Bring Dammeyer, Morris, and Pittman to the Spotlight

Mark your calendars now for FCEI 2020:
Deaf Children, Families and Services:
Embracing Diversity for Brighter Futures
May, 27th - 30th 2020, Bad Ischl, Austria

Keynote speakers include:

- Jesper Dammeyer, PhD, Associate Professor of Psychology at the University of Copenhagen, will address "Strategies to Promote Positive Early Mental Health and Well-Being," covering current evidence-based practices and guidelines for how to support psychological and mental health for different groups of children with hearing loss.
- Djenne-Amal Morris, whose son Malik is deaf with additional disabilities, brings a dynamic message on Special Needs Parenting and Exceptional Family Building Skills. Currently the president of the Hands & Voices Board of Directors (US), Morris is a trained family support consultant and life coach. Learn more at www.todaywithdjenne.com
- Paula Pittman, PhD., Director of the SKI-HI Institute at Utah State University. With 35 years of experience, Paula's work as co-creator and developer of the Deaf Mentor Program and Curriculum Manuals, in addition to many other early education materials, has supported early intervention providers and parents worldwide.