Nicole Schilling

Short biography:

Nicole Schilling is a businesswoman who has built her own enterprise after 16 years in marketing and brought both together: the comprehensive management of projects and the experience as president of an association for parents of children who are deaf or hard of hearing. When her first daughter was born hard-of-hearing in 2006, she began a search for best practice supports and opportunities. She is the president of Elternvereinigung hörgeschädigter Kinder in Hessen and has taken an active role for full participation for children who are deaf or hard of hearing.
