

Dr. Joseph J. Murray is President of the World Federation of the Deaf and Secretary General of the International Disability Alliance. He is also a member of the IDA Inclusive Education Task Team. Dr. Murray has 25+ years of international disability rights experience, has attended numerous CRPD Committee and UN meetings, and has presented to governments, NGOS and disability communities in over 50 different countries. Dr. Murray is Professor of Deaf Studies at Gallaudet University and currently serves as a government-appointed independent expert on the Norwegian Government Commission on Sign Language.