

Emily Burke, Hands & Voices HQ, D/HH Infusion Coordinator, Deaf Parent
emily@handsandvoices.org

Emily is a thriving Fostering Joy Ambassador with a background in Child Development and work experience as a School Psychologist at a School for the Deaf. Born Deaf, Emily grew up with a hearing family who signs and was mainstreamed throughout her school years. When their daughter was identified as Deaf at birth, Emily and her husband, also Deaf, began their journey with Hands & Voices. Their daughter is bimodal-bilingual, fluent in listening and spoken language and her native American Sign Language (ASL). Emily is currently a D/HH Infusion Coordinator at Hands & Voices to bridge the Deaf community with families and professionals. She also serves on the Core Team of the Fostering Joy Project. Emily is on an adventure to continually explore GRATITUDE with her family. They live in Texas, USA with their Deaf daughter and KODA (Kid of Deaf Adults) son.
